NOTHING ON MY RADIO

Hey! There's nothing on my radio
Hey! There's nowhere else to go

Late at night, laying in my bed
Radio whispering in my ear
Songs that stayed forever in my head Those days are gone, the magic Disappeared

Hey! There's nothing on my radio
Hey! There's nowhere else to go
Hey! There's nothing on my radio
Hey! There's nowhere else to go

Me and my friends listened every day
The soundtrack of our lives was on the airwaves Heroes of the past and new sounds of the day
All rushed into our dreams and out of our heads

And we swore we would be big stars
And we followed our dreams
Up and away...
...and we're all big stars now

WEATHERMAN

Wake up Mary, you don't need to worry if the sun will shine Take your shower, you don't need to hurry, it's summertime

And I don't care 'bout rain or shine
When I'm in love the weather's fine

Late in the morning it rains without warning, everyone complains
Ain't it funny, the forecast was sunny,
I'm the one to blame

'cause I don't care 'bout rain or shine
When I'm in love the weather's fine

give me some loving and affection I'll send some sun in your direction
'cause I don't care 'bout rain or shine
When I'm in love the weather's fine

ON THE RUN

Seems like New Year's Eve was yesterday
But Spring has just begun
And I can still feel last Summer's sun
I think I must be twenty Soon I'll be past thirty-one
It feels like days are on the run

On the run, on the run

I heard about it, read about it,
Really thought I knew
When I was younger, days were never done
Those endless, boring strings of days
Got shorter every year
My mornings fly, my nights are on the run

On the run, on the run

Now there's a scammer on my wrist
And there's another on my wall
They tick and tock and lie to everyone I hope that they could keep it still I know they never will Their hours are seconds, years are on the run

On the run, on the run

BENEATH THE GATE

I'm beneath the gate
I can feel the sunny day
There's a joyful girl
Dancing in my head
I'm beneath the gate

It was late last night
When I finally got to sleep
I could feel the thrill of a beginning
It was late last night
Early morning for a love
That had just been born
From the shadows
From the darkness and the doubts

I'm beneath the gate
I can feel the sunny day
There's a joyful girl
Dancing in my head
I'm beneath the gate

Was it meant to be
Or was it just plain luck What drew her to me in the beginning?
It was meant to be
I did not believe in love
And she proved me wrong
And she showed me
And she taught me how to love

I'm beneath the gate
I can feel the sunny day
There's a joyful girl
Dancing in my head
I'm beneath the gate

I'm beneath the gate
Ooh, ooh
There's a joyful girl
Dancing in my head
I'm beneath the gate

FUEGO

Tú sabes bien que tienes algo especial
Tu entrada en escena es espectacular
Tus ojos azules iluminan el bar

Me miras, luego te vas
No juegues, te puedes quemar
No te me acerques demasiado

Te encuentro siempre y nunca es casualidad
No sé tu nombre y tú no quieres hablar
Pero esta noche no te vas a escapar, oh no

Me buscas, me encontrarás
No juegues, te puedes quemar

Tu estás pensando en acostarte ya
Yo estoy pensando en no dejarte dormir

Me buscas, me encontrarás

SALTAR SIN RED

No tengo ya ni un día que perder
Quiero aprender de nuevo a caminar
Empezar mi vida de una vez
Y soñar sin miedo a despertar

Voy a intentar
no ser como ayer
Voy a saltar
Sé que no hay red

Nunca pensé volverme a enamorar
Te vi brillar, no supe reaccionar Intuí que había mucho más Imaginé despertarme junto a ti

Voy a intentar
no ser como ayer
Voy a saltar
Sé que no hay red

DÍAS MEJORES

Y cuando nadie creía ya en mí tú estuviste siempre a mi lado Hay tantos sueños por perseguir, tantos discos y libros prestados que ya no regresarán...

Conduciremos toda la noche, siempre soñando con días mejores
Nadie nos puede parar
Y en el espejo veremos las caras
de los que nunca creyeron en nada

Y te marchaste muy lejos de aquí, y después se acabaron las cartas Tantos caminos por recorrer, tantos planes quedaron en nada Hoy vuelvo a saber de ti...

Conduciremos toda la noche,
Nadie nos puede parar

Somos los mismos, no cambiaremos
Nunca quisimos ser como ellos
Días mejores están por llegar

SATÉLITE

Te sigo de lejos cada día
Doy vueltas y vueltas en torno a ti Llevo tantos años mirando sin hablar
Te veo tan frágil desde aquí

Sé que no notas los cambios a tu alrededor
Nada te llama la atención
Lo tienes ante ti, y no lo ves Sobredosis de información

Veo mi planeta agonizar
El futuro pide tu atención
Nadie escucha ya mi transmisión
Pierdo la señal

Los últimos días del futuro
Podrían llegar sin avisar
No es cosa de héroes, solo piensa que está de tu mano actuar

Veo mi planeta agonizar
El futuro pide tu atención
Nadie escucha ya mi transmisión
Pierdo la señal

Soy solo un satélite perdido
Asomado a un abismo de color
No quiero flotar en otro sitio
Y el mundo promete algo mejor

Veo mi planeta agonizar
(Last days, last days...)
(Last days, last days...)
Nadie escucha ya mi transmisión
(Last days, last days...)

(Last days, last days...)

SAME OLD SONG

I see your picture in the paper
You talk 'bout honesty and truth
And it can only make me wonder If someone still believes in you

The only truth that's there
Is what you're telling with your eyes
It seems your eyes they don't remember
That you believe your own lies

It's the same old song
Bring it on or shut your mouth
It's been too long

You really seem so pleased to meet you
You crafted such a charming face
But your emptiness betrays you
You fool no one except yourself

The only truth that's there
remember
That you believe your own lies

It's the same old song
Bring it on or shut your mouth
It's been too long
Bring it on or shut your mouth
It's been too long

You can't touch me
I'm free from your lies
You can't touch me
I'm free from your lies

It's the same old song
Bring it on or shut your mouth
It's been too long
It's the same old song

WHENEVER I FALL

I surrendered to this calling it's too late to change my mind Everything looked nice and easy, there's no way I could decline I had plenty of time, I was feeling just fine
late to change my mind

When I got in no one told me there was no way to get out
And when the river's overflowing you don't think about the drought So I reached for the clouds, there was never a doubt

And whenever I fall you won't hear me complain
And whenever I fall I will get up again
and keep on going

I know my destination but the road
won't lead me there They said I missed the fork but they never told me where Day after day, I took my own way
won't lead me there

me complain

I am digging in concrete, I have nothing but my hands
Why I haven't given up, I will never understand I'm still dreaming up plans, trying to make a stand

me complain

EVERY TIME SHE SMILES

I see her every morning on my way to my desk
I try to make the most of that brief encounter It's just hello and a smile and some small talk, at best
So much more to say, but I'm a coward

And every time she smiles
my mind flies, and I can't concentrate I need to talk to her
but I can't find the words

And some days when we speak I think I see the green light But I'm afraid it may be wishful thinking She's waiting all by herself, nobody came to pick her up I offer her a ride, my heart is pounding

And every time she smiles
my mind flies, and I can't concentrate

And every time that our eyes meet
I want to get up and ask her out
One more day, that's all I need Just one more day to clear my doubts

my mind flies, and I can't
concentrate

concentrate
I need just one more day
I need to speak my heart

FOLK LULLABY

Go to sleep now, my love
Dream of sunshine and summer
Forget the winter
Don't fear the thunder

Don't be afraid my love
'cause I'll be there by your side
You will find the light
You will fight the darkness

And we will make it together

'cause I'll be there by your side
We will find the light
We will fight the darkness
